

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

LINCOLN

Thanks to the hard work of Mrs. Adam Voelker, and her committee of Lincoln PTA, for making the Halloweenaballo Carnival a huge success. Mrs. Voelker is Ways and Means chairman of Lincoln PTA. Many new booths and games were enjoyed by both young and old. Many thanks to all those who made this carnival one to be remembered.

permission this film "Boy Beware—Girl Beware." will also be shown upper grade students. 6th and 7th grade mothers will provide refreshments.

MADISON

The Madison PTA school carnival was a great success. The main features of the day were Heidi and the Carefree and the Spook House. A costume parade consisting of about 50 children was held and a King and Queen were elected. The country store did a very successful business and the main attraction was Batman Capes for sale.

A group of Parent Teacher Association members have been busy making signs and placards for our parade concerning the school bond issue. Madison PTA urges everyone to vote and take heed of the motto, "VOTE YES PAY LESS."

Membership chairman Mrs. Harold Caswell announced we were near our goal and urged all who have not joined to fill out a membership card.

Mrs. Adam Voelker stated that the paper drive was a huge success, collecting the amount of $175 which will be used for parties for the year for Lincoln students.

Mr. Kilburn introduced Mrs. Walter Buettenbach, the first principal of Lincoln, who discussed the forthcoming bond issue and urged all to support it.

Refreshments were served by the 7th and 8th grade mothers, under the direction of Hospitality chairman, Mrs. Andrew Foster.

All parents are urged to attend the association meeting Thursday, November 10, in the cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. to view a film provided by the Torrance Police Department. If parents give

The Kindergarten parents were hosts at the October PTA meeting on Oct. 13, 1966. Mrs. William Leetz, president, introduced Mr. Larry Miller, principal. A brief thumbnail sketch of his or her background served as introduction for each teacher. Parents attended a short open-house in the classrooms, and then returned to the cafeteria where Mr. Miller outlined the goals for the year.

Mrs. Don Willins, ways and means chairman, got Ghosts, Goblins, and even a few Hobgoblins organized so that Walteria PTA Halloween Carnival on Saturday, Oct. 29, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. was the best carnival yet.

The November association meeting, "MEET READING," will be a daytime meeting on Nov. 10, 1966. The program, "See How Reading is Taught," will be under the direction of Mrs. Dorothea Hodgkinson, Remedial Reading teacher, and Mrs. Shirley Cullum, First Grade teacher.

Walteria parents and children have been busy collecting papers for their paper drive which was held Thursday, Nov. 3, 1966.

(Seaman Portrait)

MRS. RICHARD CARON

MRS. RODNEY MACHALE

ALLEN-TONE

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Tone, who were married recently in a ceremony at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance, are now at home in Lomita. Mrs. Tone is the former Melba Jean Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, 3318 Newton St., Torrance. The bridegroom is Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Caron of Boston, Mass.

Wearing a full length white chiffon gown, the bride was escorted to the improvised altar by her father. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held by a seed pearl and lace cap. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Mrs. June Fresner, in yellow chiffon and carrying matching carnations, was the matron of honor. Mr. Robert Fresner served as best man. Guests were seated by Bill Whitecotton and Marie Mundy.

Rev. T. R. Heribert conducted the vow exchange. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, after which the bridal couple left for Las Vegas.

They are now at home in Redondo Beach. The bride is a graduate of North High School and the Newberry Beauty College. Her husband is the chef at the Portofino Inn.

Mrs. Betty Mitchell was soloist and Mrs. Jerry Kohler registered the guests at the church reception.

The bride is a graduate of South High and the Cosmetology Department at El Camino College.

Her husband was graduated from the Lutheran High in Los Angeles and El Camino College.

Queen Is Crowned

Miss Sally Reidenbach was crowned sweetheart in the Redondo Beach Chapter, Order of DeMolay, at the semi-annual Sweetheart Ball. Miss Randy Freeland, retiring chapter sweetheart, officiated.

The event was hosted by Mike Meltebeke, master counselor; John Glat, senior counselor; and Brett Klyver, junior counselor, in the Manhattan Beach Masonic Temple.

The new queen, daughter of Phil R. Reidenbach of 22004 Anza Ave., is a senior at West High School and is serving as Faith of the Redondo Assembly No. 66 International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

SAUNDERS - CARON

The Ivy House in Inglewood was the setting for the early evening wedding ceremony recently uniting Miss Linda Louise Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Saunders, 17203 Wilkie Ave., and Richard Allen Caron. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Caron of Boston, Mass.

(Art's Photo)

NICHOLLS - BURCH
Miss Julie Ann Nicholls became the bride of Richard Philip Burch in a morning ceremony recently at the First Baptist Church in Inglewood attended by 50 close friends and relatives.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Nicholls, 1519 W. 145th St., Gardena, wore a floor-length gown of lace and chiffon detailed with a round neckline, long sleeves and a sheath skirt, to which was attached a chiffon train. A short illusion veil was held by a bow and she carried a bouquet of carnations encircling white orchids.

Mrs. Alice Couture, in mint green chiffon, served as her sister's attendant.

William C. Nicholls, Jr. was best man and guests were seated by Albert Couture.

Rev. Charles L. Rhodes conducted the double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The honeymoon was spent in San Diego and the couple is living in Gardena.

The bride was graduated from Gardena High this summer. Her husband is a machinist at Harvey Aluminum.
